

<http://richmondmagazine.com/news/features/summer-2015-music-preview/>

Richmond Magazine - Blog

Summer Music Preview

A guide to summer outdoor concert season, in Richmond and around Virginia.

by Mark Robinson, Harry Kollatz Jr., Don Harrison, Kate Andrews, Michael Murphy, Henry Lutz, Pete Humes, Angela Lehman April 23, 2015

courtesy wintergreen music festival

Orchestral concerts play throughout the Wintergreen Summer Music Festival.

Wintergreen Summer Music Festival 7/6-8/2

With snow a distant memory, Wintergreen means music. The mountain resort west of Charlottesville is home to a summer music festival, now under the artistic direction of Erin Freeman, director of the Richmond Symphony Chorus. She's looking forward to the premiere of a score to Charlie Chaplin's The Tramp. The work for piano, clarinet and string quintet, composed by Daron Hagen for the Wintergreen festival, will be performed with the movie on July 24 at 7:30 p.m. The festival runs July 6 through Aug. 2. Orchestra concerts happen every weekend, and chamber music ensembles play throughout the week. Wednesday pops concerts include performances by Richmonders John Winn, Desiree Roots and Susan Greenbaum, and the Rootstone Jug Band from Roanoke. $25 to $40 for individual events; packages available.

wintergreenperformingarts.org. —AL